Section 4.2 — Comprehensive coverage

Damage caused by collision with stationary objects (including roadside fixtures) is covered under comprehensive provisions, subject to the standard $500 deductible.

Section 7.1 — Third-party property

Where the insured is liable for damage to third-party property, the insurer will indemnify the third party up to the property damage limit specified in the schedule (currently $50,000).

Section 9.4 — Medical expenses

Reasonable medical expenses arising from a covered incident are payable up to $5,000 per occupant of the insured vehicle.

Section 12.6 — Subrogation

The insurer reserves the right to recover amounts paid under this policy from any third party legally liable. The insured agrees to provide all reasonable assistance in pursuing such recovery.

Section 14.1 — Notice of loss

The insured shall notify the insurer of any incident giving rise to a claim within 30 days. Late notification may prejudice the claim where it materially affects the insurer's ability to investigate.

Section 17.3 — Approved repairers

Where the insurer authorises repair, work shall be carried out by an approved repairer from the insurer's network unless the insured obtains prior written agreement otherwise.
