Narrative

Reporting party Priya Ramaswamy contacted the non-emergency line at 18:42 on 2026-05-02 requesting a documented incident report for insurance purposes following a confirmed severe thunderstorm event. The National Weather Service Boulder office issued a Severe Thunderstorm Warning for south Aurora at 17:24 MDT and confirmed hail of 1.75 to 2.50 inches diameter (golfball to baseball) in the affected corridor via Local Storm Report at 17:38 MDT. The reporting party's 2024 Toyota RAV4 (plate CO-HRT2240) was parked in the residential driveway at the address above and could not be moved to shelter before the storm arrived. Responding officer observed extensive hail dimpling across hood, roof and trunk surfaces and a single large impact crack in the windshield near the upper passenger side. No suspects, no third parties, no injuries. Vehicle remained at the scene; owner advised to contact insurer.

Observed damage

- Hood: extensive dimpling across full surface (~30+ visible dents)
- Roof: extensive dimpling across full surface (~50+ visible dents)
- Trunk lid: moderate dimpling (~20+ visible dents)

- Windshield: large impact crack, upper passenger side, spreading laterally
- No body deformation; no broken side windows; no theft / forced entry
